

History and Art Camp Registration Open at Greenwich Historical Society

Cos Cob, CT, February 13, 2014—Snow may be on the ground, but it's not too early to start planning summer fun for the children in your family. The Greenwich Historical Society's History and Art Camp uses National Historic Landmark Bush-Holley House and its collections and archives to offer first- through seventh-graders a highly interactive summer experience with a wide variety of activities connected to our local history.

The first week immerses campers in the life of New England colonists during the American Revolution, while the second week explores the Cos Cob art colony and its relationship to Impressionist artwork inspired by the local landscape. Each week includes a field trip and a family reception to showcase what campers have learned and created.

The camp is staffed by experienced educators and counselors with special activities led by professional artists and historical reenactors. Sessions for "Senior Historians" (Grades 4-7) will take place July 7 to 11 and July 14 to 18, 2014, and sessions for "Junior Historians" (Grades 1-3) will be held on July 21 to 25 and July 28 to August 1, 2014. Campers may opt for single-week sessions. Hours are from 9:30 am to 2:30 pm.

Until March 15, PRIORITY REGISTRATION is available for members and last year's campers and guarantees last year's tuition: $550 for a two-week session and $350 for a single week. After March 15, general tuition is $700 for a two-week session and $450 for a single week. Deadline for all registration is June 15, 2014.
